PEACH • RHUBARB & ANGOSTURA BITTERS

Named after Polaire, the “Pole Star” of Parisian cabaret, this cocktail embodies her magnetic allure and rebellious spirit.

Famed for her impossibly tiny waist and exaggerated hourglass figure, she defied beauty standards and captivated audiences with her fierce, unpredictable energy.

DISCARDED BANANA PEEL RUM
CAMPARI • SWEET VERMOUTH
BLACKBERRIES • HAZELNUT

Inspired by La Goulue, the fiery and fearless star of the Moulin Rouge, this cocktail pays tribute to the woman who brought the can-can to life. Her signature high kicks and bold presence made her an icon of the Belle Époque. This drink captures that same spirit - vibrant, bold, and full of energy, just like the woman who forever changed the cabaret scene.

THE NICKNAME "LA GOULUE" TRANSLATES TO "THE GREEDY GLUTTON," WHICH REFLECTS THE STAR'S HABIT OF DRINKING CUSTOMERS' GLASSES WHILE SHE DANCED.

CASAMIGOS BLANCO TEQUILA
PINK PEPPERCORN CORDIAL

Known for her haunting ballads and dramatic stage presence, Damia sang with raw emotion, often dressed in black, bathed in a single spotlight. She was one of the first to truly embody the chanson réaliste style, paving the way for Edith Piaf.

WHEN ASKED BY A BIOGRAPHER TO DIVULGE THE SECRET OF HER LONG LIFE AND FABULOUS VOICE, DAMIA REPLIED, "THREE PACKS OF GITANES A DAY!"
