RESIDENCIES

THE JAY RAYNER QUARTET

SHOW DATES & TIMES VARY
£25

Restaurant critic, Jay Rayner, undoubtedly the best jazz pianist in Britain of all the judges on MasterChef, leads an ensemble of top-flight musicians through a compelling and vivid night of the very best of song-writing and jazz.

Expect blistering performances of iconic music from jazz greats like Herbie Hancock, Horace Silver and Dexter Gordon, through to song-writing legends including Tom Waits, Leonard Cohen and Joan Armatrading. All of this comes liberally seasoned with extraordinary, often outrageous, sometimes filthy stories from Jay's life in the worlds of food and journalism. He may also rant about chefs serving food on slates. Jay hates food served on slates.

With the bassist Robert Rickenberg, saxophonist Dave Lewis and singer Pat Gordon-Smith.

BLACK CAT CABARET "SALON DES ARTISTES"

MOST SATURDAYS EVERY MONTH | 9.15PM
£32.50

The Black Cat presents "Salon Des Artistes" - an intimate evening of variety from London's cabaret trailblazers, and the audacious petite sœur to the company's full-scale theatrical productions.

Inspired in part by the dark and daring heyday of Parisian cabaret culture, yet with a timeless sensibility of its own, the show features the very finest performers on the international circuit - expect comic song, live music, superior displays of showmanship, elegant burlesque and more...

"Salon" was born at Café Royal's infamous Grill Room in 2013 and has taken up continuous residency in the deco splendour of Crazy Coqs since 2017, appearing most Saturday's every month.

Winner 'Best Production' - London Cabaret Awards 2014

"Cabaret in its most extraordinarily suave form" - The Guardian

HAROLD SANDITEN'S OPEN MIC PARTY

SECOND THURSDAY OF EVERY MONTH | 9.15PM
£10

Join host, Harold Sanditen, and regular musicians, Michael Roulston on piano, Robert Rickenberg on bass and Jonathan "Kitch" Kitching on drums, at Crazy Coqs' longest-running show, the über-popular Open Mic Party.

Audiences are assured a terrific show with performers from across the globe. Who knows, you might discover the next Streisand or Bubl , or spot a star across the room. Michael Feinstein, Ann Hampton Callaway, Anita Gillette, Marilyn Maye, Billy Stritch, Rowan Atkinson, Amanda McBroom and many more have already discovered the excitement of the evening, either attending or performing, or both.

If you're a performer, it's your chance to shine in one of the most beautiful music rooms in London. We welcome singers and instrumentalists, and our musicians can play jazz, cabaret, musical theatre, pop, rock, and even opera! We encourage everyone, from newcomers to seasoned professionals.

"It's fun and funky and has to be the best value entertainment in London"
- Thanasis Kalantzis, Cabaret Scenes

MARCEL LUCONT'S CABARET FANTASTIQUE

SHOW DATES VARY | 9.15PM
£20

Following sell-out seasons in 2018 and 2019, France's finest flâneur, raconteur and bon-viveur, Marcel Lucont, continues to serve his feast of alternative international cabaret, featuring comedy, music, poetry, magic and circus with a different line-up of guests each month.

"Fresh, accessible and hilarious" - The Guardian

"One of the finest nights in our fair city" - Time Out London

"The most unique evening of cabaret you will experience... Lucont is a comedic genius" - The Australia Times

FLANDERS & SWANN

SHOW DATES VARY EVERY MONTH | 7PM
£20

"Impressive, suave... a delight!" - The Times

Having delighted audiences across the globe for the past decade, the Rolls Royce of Flanders & Swann shows returns!

Join multi award-winning comedian, Tim FitzHigham, and BBC Radio 4 musical maestro, Duncan Walsh Atkins, as they starch their beards and trim their dinner jackets, ready to bring you the wit and wordplay of those ingenious comedy songsmiths, Michael Flanders and Donald Swann.

Lifelong fans and the uninitiated alike will delight to see the boys breathe new life into the much-loved words and music of Flanders & Swann, including all the classics: The Hippopotamus (Mud, Mud, Glorious Mud), The Gnu, The Gas Man Cometh and many more - plus a few hidden gems along the way! Every performance displays a different song list.

"Astute wit and genius wordplay... great" - The Guardian

SHOWS WITH LONGER RUNS

BENJAMIN SCHEUER: IN CONCERT

3 & 4 FEBRUARY | 7PM
5 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£25

London based, New York born singer/songwriter, Benjamin Scheuer, returns to Crazy Coqs for a three-night residency.

Scheuer is a virtuoso guitar player and an artful storyteller, whose show The Lion won him a Drama Desk Award for 'Outstanding Solo Performance'. In his songs, the "casual, unrehearsed immediacy masks the narrative complexity of a novel or an opera", according to the Los Angeles Times, whilst his onstage presence blends profound insight with domestic details to deliver a performance immersed in humanity and emotional connection.

The shows mark a first chance for London audiences to hear tracks from Scheuer's forthcoming album for Canvasback / Parlophone, due for release later in 2020.

CHRIS INGHAM CELEBRATES THE ALL TIME GREATS

5, 12, 19, 26 FEBRUARY & 4 MARCH | 7PM
£20

Chris Ingham arrives at Crazy Coqs to entertain not only with his legendary piano and vocal skills but also adding stories and anecdotes from the lives of five all time music greats: Dudley Moore, Hoagy Carmichael, Stan Getz, Johnny Mercer and Richard Rodgers.

Over several years, Chris Ingham has built a reputation as an accomplished pianist, band leader, vocalist and arranger with his jazz group Jazz at The Movies playing the work of Miles Davis, Horace Silver and many more. He is an inspiring interpreter of the life and times of musicians.

Sit back and enjoy Chris Ingham's entertaining company.

THE DOLLY SHOW

17, 18, 20 & 21 FEBRUARY | 7PM
19 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£25

"One of the world's BEST tribute artists" – BBC One

Back by popular demand following sold out shows in 2019, Crazy Coqs welcomes back multi-award-winning Australian singer and comedienne, Kelly O'Brien, as country legend Dolly Parton.

Voted the number one Dolly Parton tribute by the Agents Association of Great Britain, the supremely talented starlet is a brilliant vocalist who has performed as Dolly all over the world for almost ten years. She looks like Dolly, she sounds like Dolly and she's as funny and witty as Dolly.

This intimate piano show brilliantly recreates the vitality and voice of the little lady from Tennessee, featuring hits Jolene, 9 to 5, Islands in the Stream and the biggest selling single of all time by a female artist, I Will Always Love You.

"Wow, Kelly is as fierce as Dolly Parton herself!" – Michael Bubl 

LORNA LUFT SPRINGS INTO LONDON

27, 28, 29 APRIL & 2 MAY | 7PM
30 APRIL & 1 MAY | 9.15PM
£35

Lorna Luft's acclaimed career has encompassed virtually every arena of entertainment. A celebrated live performer, stage, film and television actress, bestselling author, recording artist, Emmy-nominated producer, and humanitarian – she continues to triumph in every medium with critics labelling her one of the most versatile and exciting artists on stage today.

Daughter of the legendary entertainer, Judy Garland, and producer, Sidney Luft, music and entertainment have always been integral parts of her life.

Join Lorna as she shares favourites from the Great American Songbook – some of them made famous by her mother, as well as stories from Hollywood, Broadway, and beyond as only she can tell them.

JOE STILGOE & FRIENDS

18-24 MAY | SHOW TIMES VARY

£25

"Who from the world of entertainment would you like to share the Crazy Coqs stage with?"

This is the question we asked internationally celebrated pianist, singer and songwriter – not to mention Crazy Coqs favourite – Joe Stilgoe in 2017. The result was Joe Stilgoe & Friends, and it turned out that Stilgoe has some pretty special friends.

Joe's annual pilgrimage to Crazy Coqs has become a highlight of the spring season, and after three sell-out residencies, he returns this May.

Joe's acclaimed live shows are a mixture of virtuosic musicianship, breath-taking theatricality and interaction with the audience, combining on the spot improvisation and the quickest of wits.

With the breadth of talent Joe has enticed to share the stage with him, each show will be a unique event full of humour, drama and impromptu moments. Don't miss this incredible week of music.

Special guests' line-up to be announced.

GIRL IN A MILLION: THE BEST OF MISS HOPE SPRINGS

14 MARCH (7PM) | 24 APRIL (9.15PM) | 30 MAY (7PM)

In this new show, the follow spot illuminates the best of Miss Hope Springs (that she could find anyway). Your favourite Vegas 'recovering showgirl', down-on-her-luck lounge-act legend Hope, reminisces about the songs that have been so good to her over the past fift... twenty years.

Live at the piano, Hope revisits her most successful LPs (some selling in the tens of copies) from Je m'appelle Hope and sci-fi Out of this World to sizzling Latin Ala Springs. There's more showbiz scandal from her Ritz to the pit's life in LA, Paris...and Dungeness.

Written/performed by Ty Jeffries, winner Broadway World Awards 'Best Cabaret Edinburgh Fringe 2019'.

"Darkly comic numbers that would give Tim Minchin a run for his money" - Broadway Baby

"Tragi-comic genius" - Julian Clary

LOVE, LOSS AND LULLABIES: THE MUSIC OF SCOTT ALAN

24 MAY | 7PM & 9.15PM

25 & 26 MAY | 7PM

£25

Since the start of Scott Alan's career, various themes have resonated throughout his work. Now a new theme has been woven into the fabric of his songs.

Join the award-winning songwriter and his very special guests as they share the stories behind his most acclaimed works and introduce you to the Alan's newest musical chapter - fatherhood.

Special guests to be announced.

MELISSA ERRICO: AMOUR & AFTER

20-22 APRIL | 7PM

£30

"One of the most moving and even thrilling cabaret shows I've ever seen." - Will Friedwald, The Wall Street Journal

Every New York critic raved about Melissa Errico's new show of the music of Michel Legrand, Amour and After. "Amour" was the title of Michel's only Broadway musical, which earned Melissa a Tony Award nomination. She explains, "I call the show 'Amour & After' because that's also the great subject of all French songs: 'Amour' - love -- and everything that comes afterwards."

Accompanied by Tedd Firth on piano, Melissa's show includes many Legrand standards, as well as the premiere of the last song that Legrand ever composed with his favourite lyric writing team, Alan and Marilyn Bergman. Devoted to the composer with whom she had an intimate relationship, Melissa brings an insider's witty stories and her unique theatrical enchantment to all of Legrand: from jazz & Hollywood classics to songs he wrote for her and even the music that influenced him, from Cole Porter to Trenet.

Melissa's new album "Legrand Affair - Deluxe Edition" was recently released on Warner Music.

JASON GARDINER: IN THE CLOSET

1 & 2 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£25

You may know him from Dancing on Ice, but for the first time ever, Jason Gardiner bares all in his candidly funny, touchingly poignant, mind-blowingly honest (of course) debut one-man show. Accompanied on piano by his supremely talented collaborator, Philip Foster, this show invites the audience into Jason's personal life as he shares his loves and losses, fame and pain from a young boy to the dizzying heights of TV fame.

This is a powerhouse cabaret performance that feels more like a mini-musical full of hilarious stories with a few unexpected twists and turns.

STRINGFEVER: LIVE IN CONCERT

4 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£20

Following a sold-out debut in 2018, 'the world's most entertaining electric quartet', Stringfever, bring you their unique show featuring electric strings, beatbox and comedy.

Ravel's Bolero performed all on one cello and The History of Music in 5 Minutes are just a couple of the crazy things on the menu along with rock classics and classical favourites reinvented for the 21st Century.

Stringfever is composed of brothers Giles, Ralph and Neal and their cousin Graham.

"Unique, fresh, uplifting and memorable. Their show is a perfect combination of artistry, showmanship, the past, the present and the future" - New York Times

BABS SAVAGE

6 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£25

The RnB singer sensation, Babs Savage, who won the 2018 International Chicago Music Award for her 'Outstanding Contribution to Music', returns with her five piece band.

Babs hit the London stages when she opened for George Michael's band Wham. After meeting Rickey Rainbow, a highly acclaimed producer/singer songwriter, they produced Babs debut album London Kisses. Her singles La La and Hot Apple Pie both topped the US billboard charts.

Babs will cover her favourite songs from Diana Ross and Nina Simone to David Bowie as well as performing her own chart-topping numbers.

Guest singers include Jane Milligan (Mamma Mia and Kinky Boots) and Millie Holdsworth.

SONDHEIM UNPLUGGED

7 FEBRUARY & 29 MAY | 7PM & 9.15PM
£30

A celebrated New York event since 2010, Sondheim Unplugged makes its way across the pond for one night only for its second appearance at Crazy Coqs, following sold out performances in 2019.

Sondheim Unplugged delves into the musical world of Broadway's master composer. Tunes from A Little Night Music, Company, Into the Woods, Follies and more adorn this tribute to the man who finished the hat.

A currently-running hit show at NYC's leading nightspot, Feinstein's/54 Below, Sondheim Unplugged is hosted by series creator Phil Geoffrey Bond, who humorously fills the audience in on Sondheimian facts, history & assorted tidbits of theatrical lore!

T'SHAN WILLIAMS: HERE AND NOW

9 FEBRUARY | 3PM & 7PM
£20

Following the success of her first visit in 2019 in between her providential run of Celie in The Color Purple, T'Shan Williams is back for an intimate evening featuring her favourite repertoire from the worlds of jazz, blues and gospel, along with her inimitable blend of anecdotes and banter.

Don't miss the chance to meet T'Shan, listen to some exclusive previews of her own material, ask your burning questions in the Q&A following the show and maybe even catch one of the special giveaways she's bringing with her.

LOVE HURTS: A WORDTHEATRE STORY EVENT

11 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£15

One of Europe's most authentic, spirited blues and jazz piano players, Dom Pipkin, brings back his acclaimed one-man show The Sweet Sounds of New Orleans with a heart racing musical journey into this fabled city.

Alongside a glittering session career (David Byrne, Ray Davies, Morcheeba), Dom Pipkin is a regular visitor and performer in New Orleans with a career spanning more than two decades. Dom found a lifelong passion for the music of this magical city.

"Your music warms my heart, coming directly from the source" – Hugh Laurie

MISS HOPE SPRINGS: THE LOVE SONGS

14 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£25

In this special Valentine's Day show, your favourite vintage Vegas 'recovering showgirl', lounge-act legend Miss Hope Springs, brings you an evening of classic original songs and scandalous stories on the theme of Love. There will be chocolate, champagne, roses... and just a dash of poison.

Live at the piano, Hope trawls the treasure-trove that is her back catalogue in a show to make cupid blush.

Hope is the creation of Ty Jeffries, winner of Broadway World 'Best Cabaret Edinburgh Fringe Award 2019'."

RIA JONES: LOVE IS LOVE

14 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£25

Back for one night and fresh from her acclaimed run as Rose in Gypsy at the Manchester Royal Exchange, join Ria in celebrating all kinds of love on one of the most romantic days of the year.

MODERN LOVE: IF YOU WANT ME, I'LL BE IN THE BAR - A VALENTINE'S SPECIAL

15 FEBRUARY | 7PM & 9.15PM
£25

Multi-award-winning singer, Ian Shaw, fuses the words and music of Joni Mitchell and the much-missed David Bowie to weave an intricate and two-sided look at Valentine's Day.

In sweet combination with the standards and love songs of almost a hundred years (Bowie and Joni adored the classics - Bowie recorded Wild Is the Wind, Joni an entire album of jazz standards) Shaw traverses their back catalogues. This unmissable and highly personal journey taps into our own ideals of love, hope and the presence of the darker truths of recent times. Expect tears, laughter...and simply great song writing.

MUSICALITY: SONGS FROM THE WEST END

16 FEBRUARY | 3PM
£22.50

A host of West End performers and recording artists join forces to bring you this night of musical theatre and much, much more in this five-star awarded show.

Featuring actor and singer Harry Kit Lee (Little Shop of Horrors, Hair, Fame), crossover soprano, Claire Delaney (Royal Albert Hall, Wales Millennium Centre, Alan Menken) and Britain's Got Talent winner and former member of vocal harmony group, Collabro, Richard Hadfield.

With songs from West Side Story, Hair, Bonnie & Clyde and a few valentine surprises along the way, this is an evening simply not to be missed.

NICK MACLEAN QUARTET FEAT. BROWNMEN ALI

16 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£15

This February, the multi-award-winning Canadian modern-jazz ensemble, the Nick Maclean Quartet feat. Brownman Ali embarks on their international tour across the UK.

Led by 26-year old fast-rising piano-star Nick Maclean - a 6x Global Music Award winner and one of the most in-demand young jazz piano players in Toronto - the group also features one of Canada's most provocative improvising trumpet players, 2x National Jazz Award winner & "Canada's preeminent jazz trumpet player", Brownman Ali.

This contemplative yet thrilling quartet delivers jazz between the two poles of thoughtful introspection and powerhouse conveyance, taking influences from Herbie Hancock's primordial 1960's Blue Note recordings.

CELEBRATING JUDY GARLAND: WITH LAUREN SAMUELS & SOPHIE EVANS

21 FEB & 14 APRIL | 9.15PM
£25

10 years ago, Lauren Samuels and Sophie Evans were brought together for the BBC competition Over the Rainbow, the search for Dorothy for a new West End production of The Wizard of Oz. Sophie then made her West End debut as Dorothy and has since starred as Glinda (Wicked). Lauren's West End roles include Jules (Bend It Like Beckham), Sandy (Grease) and Scaramouche (We Will Rock You).

The firm friends reunite for this special concert to celebrate the actress and singer Judy Garland, most famous for her role in The Wizard of Oz. Songs will include Get Happy, On the Sunny Side of the Street, The Trolley Song and of course Over the Rainbow!

DEELEE DUBÉ

22 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£19

As the first and only British Winner of the 2016 Sarah Vaughan International Jazz Vocal Competition, Deelee Dubé is one of today's foremost gifted vocalists to have emerged from the London scene in many years.

Embodying a stellar African musical lineage, the eclectic tastes of a London upbringing and a deep love and respect for the jazz tradition, Deelee possesses what Jazz Times called "a warm tone, genuine blues feeling and easy rhythmic authority."

"A voice of deep grainy power... Dubé has a quick-witted musicality" - Daily Telegraph

LA VOIX MEETS ARLENE PHILLIPS

24 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£25

La Voix is back with her 'in conversation with' shows and this time up for an interrogation is Arlene Phillips CBE!

Arlene is best known for being one of the UK's top choreographers, theatre director, talent scout, television judge, presenter and dancer having worked in many fields of entertainment. Expect an evening of stories and anecdotes from her time working in TV & Theatre and who knows maybe a dance move or two!

La Voix is the UK's funniest red head and performs around the country with her comedy tour and regularly performs at Crazy Coqs with her one woman show.

KIT & MCCONNEL

25 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£22.50

With subjects ranging from Putin to Pampers, fresh from their latest UK tour of theatres up and down the country - and with only the vaguest of nods to good taste and propriety - cabaret veterans Kit & McConnell (formerly Kit & The Widow) are delighted to present their latest offering of up-to-the-minute topical songs & sketches.

Do join them for an evening of wit, musical silliness, improvisation and general absurdity.

"I could barely write for laughing, most of the time" - Edinburgh Fringe Review

SHIRLEY & SHIRLEY: BUMP AND GRIND

27 FEBRUARY & 13 MAY | 7PM
£15

Shirley and Shirley went forth and multiplied. Now they're back, due to popular demand, and want to tell you all about it.

Postpartum they remain as punchy as ever, unleashing their pitch-black comedy through sketch and stand up. Celebrating their similarities and exposing their differences, they promise to have you rolling in the aisles.

Without a doubt, Shirley and Shirley are the best British-Surinamese, Irish-Palestinian double-act working on the comedy circuit today.

"I love the Shirleys. They are bold, brash and always bloody funny." - Jen Brister

PARRY RAY: OUT OF THE SHADOWS

27 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£16

Singer/songwriter, Parry Ray, released her new EP Out of the Shadows in December 2019.

This collection of beautifully recorded titles comprises a broad spectrum of both modern and classic songs known and loved from the world of musical theatre; pulled apart and tastefully reinterpreted within the jazz genre.

This EP is produced and co-arranged by notable talent James McMillan who has worked with Parry to arrange these outstanding songs in a way that is both wonderfully intimate and modern.

Regularly performing live at venues including the RAH, Upstairs at Ronnie Scott's, the Bulls Head and The Phesantry.

CRAIG POMRANZ: ROMANCE AROUND THE CLOCK

28 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£15

New York/Los Angeles sensation & MAC Award winner 'New York's Best Male vocalist', Craig Pomranz returns with classic standards, reinterpreted pop songs and brand-new material – delivered with his own unique talent and compelling vocal style.

He carries the tradition of Sinatra, Bennett, Streisand, Wilson and Chet Baker with a contemporary twist.

"Tenor of the Times" – GQ Magazine

LUCY MERRILYN SINGS THE LEGENDARY LADIES OF JAZZ (FT. JOOLS HOLLAND'S BASSIST DAVE SWIFT)

28 FEBRUARY | 9.15PM
£20

At just 23 years old, with rich and resonant vocals that belie her age, Lucy Merrilyn stands on the cusp of a formidable career.

For her Crazy Coqs debut, she will be performing classic tunes of the world's leading ladies of jazz such as Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Julie London and Peggy Lee to name a few. She will be accompanied by her trio – Harry the Piano, Dave Swift on bass - Jools Holland's bassist of 27 years - and Joel Barford on drums. Her sprightly, fresh interpretation of traditional standards guarantees to entice and dazzle.

"Wonderful new talent" – Jools Holland

SOPHIE SOLOMON

29 FEBRUARY | 7PM
£25

Charismatic violin virtuoso and songwriter, Sophie Solomon – the leading klezmer violinist of her generation – invites you to an intimate evening of quirky songs of the East from her latest album Stop the Parade, produced with long-time collaborator Marius de Vries (Rufus Wainwright, Bjork, Bowie). Sophie sings a barbed wire love song, a spy leaves messages in a drop box and a fantastical dictator speaks from his deathbed....

Featuring her incredible 5-piece live band hot off the road with Divine Comedy, Paloma Faith, Rae Morris & more, this is a rare and unmissable chance to experience Sophie's electric energy on stage.

LIANE CARROLL

1 MARCH | 7PM
£25

London born and Hastings raised, multi-award-winning singer-pianist, Liane Carroll, is one of the UK's greatest musical treasures. A soulful, emotive singer, she can move an audience to tears with her heart-breaking ability to inhabit a lyric and in the very next moment have them jumping for joy with her breath-taking vocal virtuosity.

Her last album, The Right to Love, was released to great critical acclaim in 2017. Her 2015 album, Seaside - a homage to her life by the coast - won a British Jazz Award for 'Best New Album' and received a nomination for a 2016 Parliamentary Jazz Award.

"She seems, in some magical way, to be made out of music" - The Observer

KAREN CARPENTER: A 70TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

2 MARCH | 7PM
£20

On what would have been her 70th birthday, concert artist and West End performer Emma Kershaw pays tribute to the "voice of a generation". This Karen Carpenter celebration includes songs such as Yesterday Once More, Close to You, We've Only Just Begun, Superstar and Rainy Days and Mondays and will give the listener a glimpse into the life and career of this extraordinary artist.

Emma has performed lead roles in musicals such as Les Misérables, Chess, Into the Woods, Cabaret, Guys and Dolls and West Side Story. She grew up listening to the music of The Carpenters who remain an important part of the soundtrack of her life.

EVE FERRET'S FABARET

3 MARCH | 7PM
£20

Eve Ferret is regarded as one of the most original performers on the stage today, spinning cabaret on its head and back again.

Warm and heartfelt with a rollicking and tender voice, Eve will bring her life enhancing mix of original songs, stories and completely unexpected choice of material back to Crazy Coqs after a run of sold-out shows in 2019.

Eve has worked on stage, TV and film, including working with David Bowie in Absolute Beginners and his Grammy award winning, Jazzin for Blue Jean.

"Queen of Cabaret" - BBC Radio 4

GILL MANLY: I PUT A SPELL ON YOU

3 MARCH | 9.15PM
£20

Gill Manly returns with her critically acclaimed show, featuring Paul Robinson, Nina Simone's drummer of 18 years. She takes you on a journey through the eclectic range of songs recorded by Nina Simone reflecting her whole career. Gill is a no-holds-barred dramatic and gutsy singer. She flies vocally without a net through jazz, soul, blues and theatre. Delivering legendary performances from the catalogue of a legend.

"Gill's voice is nothing short of electric...singers with this much control and technique are a scarcity nowadays." - Jazz on CD Magazine

PETER STRAKER: THIS ONE'S ON ME

4 MARCH (9.15PM) | 5 MARCH (7PM)
£25

The sensational Peter Straker returns, choosing an exhausting challenging repertoire from Jackie, Carousel, the poisonously melodic songs of Jacques Brel, to the theatrical rock diva numbers that will celebrate the launch of his long-awaited box set: This Ones On Me from his albums, originally produced by his friend and colleague Freddie Mercury in 1977.

With an eclectic songbook from his many leading roles: HUD in Hair, The Phantom in Ken Hills Phantom of the Opera, Pete Townsend's Tommy, Frankenfurter, the sweet transvestite in The Rocky Horror Show and over 50 years in the business, you are guaranteed surprises. Joined by acclaimed pianist Gabriele Baldocci.

JOE THOMPSON AND FRIENDS

5 MARCH | 9.15PM
£20

Following two sell-out shows last season, kaleidoscopic pianist Joe Thompson is back with a whole new show featuring Uruguayan percussionist Andres Ticino and the highly versatile Charlie Pyne on bass.

Leading from the piano and sharing stories from his thirty years of playing for just about everybody, Joe will be joined on stage by a few mystery guests for a unique, spontaneous and jazz-inspired night to remember.

This is a guaranteed evening of great music and laughs.

KATE GARNER AND HER BAND: SONGS FROM THE ART DECO DECADES

6 MARCH | 7PM
£20

Kate Garner, singer, pianist, songwriter and daughter of Chas Hodges of 'Chas and Dave,' returns with a collection of classic songs from the 1920s and 30s, plus brand-new original material inspired by the great songwriters of the period.

In Songs from the Art Deco Decades, Kate is accompanied by exceptional musicians on drums, double bass and alto sax/clarinet who have performed for many named artists, including the legendary Pasadena Roof Orchestra. Together they will turn back the musical clock for an evening of style with plenty of fun.

LA BOUCHE MANOUCHE FEAT. IRENE SERRA PRESENT DJANGO AND BILLIE

£20

Billie Holiday and Django Reinhardt, both legends in their own time and to the present day, never recorded together but interpreted many similar tunes across the pond throughout the golden era of jazz. We can only imagine the beauty of the two artists together...

The mesmerising vocals of Irene Serra combined with the sizzling Gypsy Jazz influenced, La Bouche Manouche, are brought together to present a programme of music which pays homage to both Billie and Django's recordings. La Bouche Manouche feat. Irene Serra will be performing foot tapping swingers, smouldering ballads, Billie Holiday and Django originals and a dose of Latin and BeBop for good measure.

THE EGYPTIAN JAZZ PROJEKT

7 MARCH | 7PM
£30

The Egyptian Jazz Projekt will feature vocalist Ahmed Harfoush and the Harfoush Jazz Band's revival of hit songs from 1950s and 60s Egypt in a new swing and Latin jazz sound, including songs made famous by Abdel Halim Hafez, Mohammed Abdel Wahab, Fareed Al Atrash, Saad Abdel Wahab and Shadia.

The Egyptian Jazz Projekt ties timeless classics by Egypt's most popular performers with hits by Cole Porter, George Gershwin and Jerome Kern. The project has been heard in Paris, Berlin, Cairo, Vienna, Melbourne and recently at Royal Albert Hall's Elgar Room, the London Jazz Festival and Dubai Opera.

18 MARCH (7PM) | 20 MARCH (9.15PM)
£30

Back by popular demand, French chanteuse, Caroline Nin returns with her songs and stories of the Paris Lido.

In a city famed for its sophisticated nightlife, one venue stands out on the Champs-Élysées: the Paris Lido. In 2012, Caroline was invited to headline this glamorous venue, “quel bonheur!”

Backed by a 6-piece band, Carloline entertained 6 nights a week to a crowd of 2000 people. For five years, Caroline introduced her audiences to the longings, struggles and heartaches of Lola Lola, the alter ego she had created on stage by singing some of the best cabaret songs. Her repertoire celebrates the cosmopolitan city of Paris with showstoppers from Liza Minnelli, Grace Jones, Shirley Mc Laine and Marlene Dietrich.

PARIS 1934. MEDLAND, WHEATCROFT & DALL'ASTA QUINTETTE

18 MARCH | 9.15PM
£20

Five of the UK's finest Gypsy Jazz musicians come together in homage to the band of Parisian Jazz legends Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grapelli: le Quintette du Hot Club de France.

They will perform some of the quintette's best loved compositions as well as jazz standards of the era and a selection of some of the modern Gypsy Jazz repertoire.

The band features rising star violinist Tobie Medland, internationally renowned guitar masters John Wheatcroft and Filippo Dall'Asta and the impenetrable rhythm section of Cornelius Corkery (Rhythm Guitar) and Simon Read (Double Bass).

Django and Stephane's Quintette du Hot Club de France provided the iconic soundtrack to Jazz age Paris. To this day, they remain two of the most influential and loved figures in European music history.

The sextet includes some of London's most in demand musicians. It is led by a charismatic international duo of young singers - the gifted French singer-songwriter, Garance Louis (Garance and the Mithochondries, Chewy She...) and wonderful Cherise Adams-Burnett (Trope, SEED ensemble...), currently making waves on the London Jazz scene.

Completing the line-up is Johnny Woodham on trumpet, Dorian Ford on keys, Huw V Williams on double and electric bass, and Simon Roth on drums.

CHRISTINE BOVILL'S PIAF

21 MARCH (7PM) | 22 MARCH (3PM)
£22

"There is always one moment in childhood when the door opens and lets the future in." - Graham Greene.

Christine threads her remarkable journey in the world of French Song with the life and works of Edith Piaf. No gimmicks. No pretence. Nothing but a voice, singing of life's triumphs and tragedies. Christine's Piaf is both a personal narrative and a powerful musical homage to France's most endearing icon.

"Bovill conveys the pathetic nature of the song with few gestures, her voice carrying all before her, its honeyed subtleties wringing pathos from every line. Forget the ululating gymnastics of The X Factor or The Voice, this is how you sell a song." - Northern Ireland Culture

THE CRAZY COQS PRESENTS... A CELEBRATION OF FRENCH CABARET

HAROLD SANDITEN: I GOT RHYTHMS

23 & 25 APRIL | 7PM
£22

Grab your maracas and bongos, Harold's back with a brand-new show.

Over the past five years, Harold Sanditen, charismatic host of Crazy Coqs' longest-running show Open Mic Party, has been performing around the globe, absorbing new forms of musical expression along the way - a smattering of country-western from his native Oklahoma, the romantic wheeze of a Parisian concertina, the abandon of a bouzouki on a beach in Mykonos, and the sexy sway of a Brazilian samba. This highly rhythmic celebration guarantees irresistible toe-tapping fun.

"Sanditen's honey-toned vocals, along with Roulston's stunning arrangements, make this a joy!" - Cabaret Scenes

PATTI BOULAYE: BILLIE AND ME

23 APRIL | 9.15PM
£30

The very talented, award-winning singer and actress, Patti Boulaye, goes on an entertaining personal journey in which she discusses the parallels of her life and career with that of the great singer Billie Holiday.

The late Billie Holiday's life, songs and cause of her death, have had a strong impact on modern day performers like Patti and it was many of Holiday's songs and performances that increased Patti's love of jazz. In Billie & Me, Patti performs some of her own favourite music and well-known songs by Billie Holiday.

"Toe tapping along" - Evening Standard

THE GIRLS FROM OZ: ANZAC SHOW

24 APRIL | 7PM
£20

The Girls from Oz are back! Britain's favourite Antipodean divas and their Pommy pianist return just in time for ANZAC Day with their re-imagined Great Australian songbook, swung to the rafters with a vintage twist.

What does that mean? Well... If Glenn Miller and Kylie Minogue went on a date, and Manhattan Transfer and the Andrew Sisters gate-crashed - this would be the result!

This heavenly-harmonious trio will be acknowledging the occasion with a fun, but tasteful, array of classic Australian hits, vintage ditties and morale boosting wartime favourites.

NOEMI NUTI'S VENUS EYE THROUGH SONG AND JAZZ

29 APRIL | 9.15PM
£15

Italian-American vocalist, Noemi Nuti, returns with her second album Venus Eye to explore song form through jazz and improvisation. The music describes themes of everyday life in a quest to find universal truths through her female perspective, making the music beautifully intimate yet thoroughly expansive.

Nuti is a well-established vocalist based in London, has toured extensively and performed in all the major jazz venues, receiving wide critical acclaim. Her songs have been A listed on Jazz FM and she will be bringing them to life joined by her fantastic trio.

TAKE A WALK ON THE WEILL SIDE

30 APRIL & 1 MAY | 7PM
£20

Kurt Weill was one of the greatest theatre showmen of his day. He wrote music of biting satire and wit, with stories of cruel, calculating women, reaping revenge on the politics of war-torn Europe.

Chanteuse, Taylor Wilson, brings her 1930's Berliner Cabaret to life with her multi-instrumentalist band The Schadenfreudes. His genius endures with classics - from Mack the Knife, Pirate Jenny and Alabama to September Song - sewn together in a tale of romance, rejection and revenge. All told through the eyes of the many 'Jenny' characters that Weill and Brecht created in their wild Volksbühne theatre.

JENNIFER TIERNEY: TAKING CHANCES

£22

Currently in the Olivier award winning musical Come from Away, Jennifer has performed in several productions including Wicked, Mamma Mia, Shrek, Jerry Springer the Opera, Chess and Saturday Night Fever.

Whilst her love for musical theatre has given her 20 years in the industry, this concert will have a variety of material by her favourite artists and writers through the generations. With unique arrangements and accompanied by friend and musical director, Craig Adams (Lift - the musical), it promises to be a musical evening not to be missed.

MELINDA HUGHES & FRIENDS

7 MAY | 7PM
£18

Described by Vanity Fair as 'scandalous and timely', Melinda is back after sell-out shows with an evening packed with brand new songs and special guests from the comedy and cabaret world.

Melinda sings on-point satirical cabaret and raucous musical comedy, covering timely topics such as baby boomers, internet trolling, selfies, cougars, hipsters and cheeky opera divas. She is backed by a fabulous four-piece band led by composer and comedian Jeremy Limb.

"Consummate cabaret from a singer/comedian at the top of her genre" - Fringe Review

"Deliciously wicked political and social satire" - Musical Theatre Review

SVEN RATZKE: WHERE ARE WE NOW

7 & 8 MAY | 9.15PM
£25

Press and audiences worldwide agree; there is hardly any other artist who comes so close to David Bowie as Sven Ratzke.

In Where are we now, Ratzke looks back - and ahead - in the life of Bowie with newly written songs that could have come from the master himself. Interwoven with typically witty Ratzke stories, experience this particularly unique show for two nights only.

Prepare for an intimate, funny and majestic Rock-n-Roll roller coaster ride as this great entertainer takes you on a journey into the Bowie universe...

GIULIO ROMANO TRIO FEAT. FRANCESCA CONFORTINI

8 MAY | 7PM
£15

Giulio Romano's music is a journey from the Adriatic Sea to the big smoke of London town.

Genres like Swing, Jazz, Funk, World and Latin sounds are all featured in Giulio's compositions which have been influenced by major artists such as Pat Metheny, Antonio Forcione, Ralph Towner, Egberto Gismonti, George Benson and many more

On the night, GRM Quartet will play original tunes from the album Unexpected Ride as well as arrangements by great late artists like Pat Metheny, Donald Fagen, George Benson and it will also feature the great London based jazz singer, Francesca Confortini, on vocals during the second part of the show.

RYAN MOLLOY PRESENTS: FRANKIE GOES TO WONDERLAND

10 MAY | 3PM & 7PM
£40

Olivier award winner and Star of Jersey Boys Westend and Broadway, Ryan Molloy, presents Frankie goes to Wonderland.

Ryan explores Stevie Wonder's legendary back catalogue and sings a selection of his greatest hits live and unplugged. With help from Westend special guests, Ryan explores the creative timeline of one of music's most phenomenal artists.

A truly thrilling experience. This will be an unforgettable evening you won't want to miss out.

GYPSY JAZZ FESTIVAL OF LONDON

For a while now, the Gypsy Jazz scene has been a hotbed of astonishing musicianship and artistry, bubbling and simmering away somehow just beyond the glow of the mainstream jazz spotlight.

However, the Gypsy Jazz Festival of London aims to change this, by putting on a series of concerts in May across London to showcase this fantastic music - and Crazy Coqs is delighted to play host to three incredible Gypsy Jazz bands...

PARTIKEL

12 MAY | 7PM
£15

Partikel take a unique and fresh look at the saxophone trio format. Their exciting live performances lead them to being dubbed as “one of the most exciting trios in improvised music” according to Jazz Podium.

Having four eclectic albums under their belt has seen them perform at venues and festivals all over the world and tonight, after their success in the EFG London Jazz Festival in 2019, they return with some new material that will feature on their new album set to be recorded this year.

Featuring: Duncan Eagles – Saxophone / Max Luthert – Bass / Eric Ford – Drums and Percussion

CLAIRE MARTIN & NIGEL PRICE

12 MAY | 9.15PM
£25

An intimate evening of Jazz with Claire Martin OBE and award-winning guitarist, Nigel Price.

Enjoy listening to these new musical collaborators as they dip into the Ella Fitzgerald/ Joe Pass song book and rework some stylish classics from the much-loved Great American Songbook.

“Nigel Price is probably the most gifted and dynamic guitarist on the British jazz scene today” - All About Jazz

“The best jazz singer Britain has produced in decades” - The Sunday Times

FRANKLY MARILYN: FROM VEGAS TO HOLLYWOOD

15 MAY | 7PM & 9.15PM
£25

The acclaimed David Alacey and Charley Toulan celebrate the careers of two of the greatest icons of the 20th Century, Frank Sinatra and Marilyn Monroe. This celebration includes music and comedy based on the friendship and relationship the two stars enjoyed during the golden years of Hollywood.

The show was given the seal of approval by the legendary Rat Pack star Buddy Greco, friend of both Frank and Marilyn. Prior to his death, he wrote a brand-new arrangement of My Heart Belongs to Daddy for Charley and recorded a duet of the ultimate saloon song One For My Baby with David. Both rare gems can be heard in this production.

RAINER HERSCH: ALL CLASSICAL MUSIC EXPLAINED

16 MAY | 7PM
£22.50

Rainer Hersch is half German, half English, which means he'd like to take over the world but he's too polite...

In his hilarious show he asks those difficult questions: "why is organ music so boring?"; "what did Mozart steal from ABBA?" and "what do conductors actually do?" Whether you are a music professor or can't tell string quartets from a string vest, relax: his show will teach you nothing, but it will make you laugh.

Rainer Hersch is a musician and stand-up comedian who is celebrated on every major comedy stage in Britain and abroad.

CAT LOUD: TORCH SONGS

17 MAY | 7PM
£15

Known for her dusky, emotive voice and biting wit, Edinburgh Fringe regular, jazz singer and award-winning cabaret performer, Cat Loud sets out to explore the historically female led sub-genre of jazz. Torch Songs features classic and contemporary tracks from vibrant women – the likes of Billie Holiday, Nina Simone and Melody Gardot – who sing of heartbreak and pain, and every shade of love in between.

"Perfect night cap... Stunning!" - Graham Norton

"A brand of dusky torch singing which stuns the room into silence." - The List

Winner of VAULT Festival Origins Award for 'Outstanding New Work', 2018.

JULIAN VELARD

21 & 22 MAY | 9.15PM
£18

Inspired by the unsuccessful experimental Broadway shows of the 1970s, Julian Velard has written a musical about his own life. A Manhattanite living in Queens with a young family, Velard has quit the music business for the stable world of theatre. Joined by his co-writer and fellow dad Mark from the Park, Velard presents his disaster piece in an attempt to solve the problem of growing up.

Velard's song writing and comedic timing have made him a regular on The Howard Stern Show and NPR, and have won acclaim in The Guardian, Time Out London, The Sunday Times and The Wall Street Journal.

STIFF & KITSCH

27 MAY | 9.15PM
£15

Join multi-award-winning musical comedy duo, Stiff & Kitsch, plus guests, for an hour of songs and stories, fresh off the back of their sell-out hit Stiff & Kitsch: Bricking It.

"Perfectly executed self-deprecating modern musical comedy that had the audience in stitches." - British Comedy Guide

★★★★★ "Hysterical...these two are a pair to watch out for" - West End Wilma

★★★★★ "Guaranteed to put a smile on your face" - Broadway World

Winner - Musical Comedy Awards 2018

Winner - Vault Comedy Award 2017

BATTLE OF THE WEST END

28 MAY | 9.15PM
£15

Battle of the West End returns after the huge success of its summer launch in 2019.

It is a tongue in cheek fun filled stagey evening hosted by Paul Flexton with three West End stars as you've never seen them before, battling it out in singing challenges. All three take part in Act One with one being eliminated by the audience. The two survivors battle it out in the Big Finale in Act Two where the audience once again get to vote on who should be crowned the winner!

Current champion is West End veteran, Norman Bowman.

Star line-up to be announced.

MICHAEL DORE: HOME FOR THE SUMMER

31 MAY | 3PM
£20

After many sell-out performances, Michael Dore returns to celebrate being home for the summer, after performing around the world in countries including Australia, Thailand, South Africa, Canada and the USA. He has sung at the most iconic venues and can be heard on around 200 film soundtracks.

Michael's vocal coaching has included working with Taron Egerton on the films Sing and Rocketman.

Musical director John G Smith.

"A great voice" - Dame Shirley Bassey
